The duty of surveyor-generals appointed by the present administration seems to be to attack the titles to land obtained through their predecessors. Fo lowing in the lead of others, our surveyor general has just made his report of the discovery of immense frauds.

An idea of the advance in real e tate in California can be obtained from the following from the Pomona Times: "I. W. Aitkin has gone to Prescott, Arisona, to visit his three sons and endeavor to interest Arizona capital in Pomona real estate. Mr. Aitkin invested $300 a year ago and could now sell for $6,000. This ought to be an inducement."

There is good humor in the brief re ference made by the Atlanta Canstitution of Saturday a week ago to a memor able anniversary, in these words. "Twenty-three years ago yesterday, a route agent named W. T. Sherman piloted the biggest party of excursionists into Atlanta that ever visited Georgia. Efforts were made to entertain the party here, but they decided to extend their trip to

A Phenix paper says it is reported that another attempt was made to rob the Southern Pacific train near Pantano last Monday. Owing to the washout no train put in appearance, and as a result the plan was frustrated. It was probably owing to this disappointment that caused the parties to take a trip across country and hold up the Atlantic & Pacific train, while repairs are being made on the Southern Pacific.

The tobacco article on the fourth page of this issue has created considerable discussion. It was written by a gentleman of ability, but it by no means reflected the sentiments of the editor of the paper, who believes that the Creator caused tobacco to grow for some good purpose. While the tobacco habit is not a particularly agreeable one in many re spects, we seriously doubt, from personal experience, of its injurious effect, as applied universally.
